

Does My Team Need to Submit a Permission to Travel Form for the Virginia Soccer Tournament?

You MUST submit Permission to Travel Forms if:

- Your team is from OUTSIDE Region 1. (The only exception is US Club Soccer teams)
- Your team is from Region 1, but not associated with the State Youth Association.

You DO NOT need to submit Permission to Travel Forms if:

- Your team is US Youth Soccer State Association team within Region I.
- Your team is a US Club Soccer Team.
- Your team plays in the National Capital Soccer League (NCSL), or Old Dominion Soccer League (ODSL).

List of Region I National State Associations

- Connecticut Junior Soccer Association
- Delaware Youth Soccer Association
- Eastern New York Youth Soccer Association
- Eastern Pennsylvania Youth Soccer Association
- Soccer Maine
- Maryland Youth Soccer Association
- Massachusetts Youth Soccer Association
- New Hampshire Soccer Association
- New Jersey Youth Soccer Association
- New York State West Youth Soccer Association
- Pennsylvania West State Soccer Association
- Soccer Rhode Island

- West Virginia Soccer Association

How do I obtain a Permission to Travel Form?

Check with your league and/or state registrar for specific procedures. Typically you will need to submit a copy of the Virginia's Permission to Host Agreement to your league and/or state registrar. A copy of the Virginia's National Permission to Host Form can be found on our tournament website at <http://soccertournament.com/permission-to-host/>.

Once approved, please send one copy of the Approved Permission to Travel Form to:

The Virginian
7075 Newington Rd.
Suite G
Lorton, VA 22079, or email the form to director@soccertournament.com.

All Approved Permission to Travel Forms must be submitted by May 14, 2021.
